

CHAS. SUMNER EULOGIZED.

CONGRESSIONAL HONORS TO THE DEAD SENATOR.

A Southern Democrat's Estimate of the Man Great in his Moral Character and in his Testimony for Freedom.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—This being the day for the eulogies upon the late Senator Sumner, the galleries of the Senate Chamber were densely crowded long before the hour of meeting upon the floor. The bust of the late Senator, recently finished by Preston Powers, was placed in a conspicuous position, and an appropriate dirge was intoned. Vice-President Wilson was present, but did not occupy the floor. Only after the reading of the Journal Mr. Blackwood, in accordance with the resolutions previously adopted, now read the speech of Mr. Sumner, and the following resolution, and asked for permission:

"Resolved, That the resolutions of the Senate, of April 27—'That the late Senator Sumner, the gallant soldier of freedom, and a man great in his moral character and in his testimony for freedom'—be referred to the Secretary of the Senate to be introduced at the first opportunity."

The resolutions were agreed to.

Mr. Burleigh then delivered an address on the life and character of Sumner, and was followed by Mr. Fessenden, Mr. Sumner's biographer; Mr. Atkinson, Mr. Marshall, Mr. Verplanck, Mr. Sherman, Mr. Pratt, of Indiana, Representative of California, and Mr. Wadsworth, of New Hampshire, the Senate of which was in session.

House of Representatives.

Under the call of States the following bills were introduced and referred:
